Songs for Little Singers

THIS Book is made up of easy, singable tunes in the compass of Children's voices; the words are within the comprehension of little folks, making in all a Book of Songs peculiarly adapted to young scholars.

There are more than fifty (50) new pieces that we believe will become popular with the children, because they are easily learned, and withal sprightly enough to enthuse the Little Singers.

Special attention is called to the

Parable Songs

Miracle Songs

Motion Songs

Two-Part Songs

The Parables and Miracles are to be read to the children before the verses about them are sung. This makes a novel and attractive feature, and serves to impress the Biblical teaching on their minds.

In the Two-Part Songs the smaller children sing one melody, while the teacher and a few of the older scholars sing another. This greatly interests the children, and offers an opportunity for them to demonstrate, before the older people, their ability to sing Part Songs.

The compilation also includes a number of old songs, such as have proven useful, and which are necessary to a child's book; we instance

*"The Sweetest Name", Bradbury. "The Evening Prayer", Stainer.
"Gentle Jesus, Meek and Mild", Stainer. "Do You Know How Many Stars", from the German. "Savior Like a Shepherd", Bradbury.
"Cradle Hymn", Luther. "Jesus Loves Me", Bradbury. "Lord Who Loveth Little Children", Novello. "Jesus Loves Even Me", Bliss.
"Little Drops of Water", Ross. "Jewels" Root.*

In the back of the book have been added a number of

Short Prayers

Exercises

Little Recitations

Interesting Items

"SONGS FOR LITTLE SINGERS"

we believe is the most unique song-book for little folks that has ever been issued, and that it will make a most valuable asset to the Primary Department of any Sunday-School.

Chorus.

Bus - y lit - tle work - ers toil - ing for the Lord,

Scatt'ring rays of sunshine o'er the earth a-broad; Giving cheer and blessing all a - long the way, Helping some one ev' - ry day.

The first system consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment in G major, 4/4 time. The second system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment, ending with a double bar line.

Evening Prayer.

Mary L. Duncan, 1839.

J. Stainer.

Voices in unison.

1. Je-sus, ten-der Shepherd, hear me; Bless Thy lit-tle lamb to-night;
2. All this day Thy hand has led me, And I thank Thee for Thy care;
3. Let my sins be all for-giv-en; Bless the friends I love so well;

The second system features a vocal line in 4/4 time and a piano accompaniment. The piano part includes a long melodic line in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand.

Through the dark-ness be Thou near me; Watch my sleep till morning light.
Thou hast clothed me, warmed and fed me; Lis-ten to my evening pray'r.
Take me, when I die, to heav-en, Hap-py there with Thee to dwell.

The third system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment, concluding the piece with a final cadence.

God's Gleaners.

1. We may not be the sow-ers, Who scat-ter pre-cious seed,
 2. We may not be the reap-ers, Who toil for Him to-day.
 3. So we are lit-tle glean-ers And tho' our sheaves are few.

But God has need of gleaners, And so His call we heed.
 But we will glean for Je-sus, And gather what we may.
 We'll work for our dear Mas-ter With lov-ing hearts and true.

Chorus.

Work! Work! Work! The fields are white to day, We'll gather sheaves for Je-sus, And praise Him while we may. Work! Work! Work! The golden grain we bring, We're gleaners in the harvest field Of Christ our King!

Do You Know How Many Stars?

(Motions ad lib.)

From the German.

1. Do you know how ma-ny stars There are shin-ing in the sky?
 2. Do you know how ma-ny bird-ies In the sunshine sing all day?
 3. Do you know how ma-ny chil-dren Go to lit - tle beds at night,

Do you know how ma-ny clouds Ev'-ry day go float-ing by?
 Do you know how ma-ny fish-es In the spark - ling wa - ter play?
 And with-out a care or sor-row Wake a - gain with morning light?

God, the Lord, their num-ber know eth, For each one His care He showeth,
 God, the Lord, who dwells in heav-en, Name and life to each has giv-en,
 God in heav'n each name can tell, — Knows us too, and loves us well,

Of the bright and boundless host, Of the bright and boundless host.
 In His love they live and move, In His love they live and move.
 He's our best and dear-est Friend, He's our best and dear-est Friend.

Motions: Verse 1. Arms extended above the head; move the fingers to represent the stars. Extend the arms in front and wave the hands to show clouds.
Verse 2. Extend the arms to the right and left, and move them to imitate the flying of the birds. Extend the hands and move from right to left in front to represent fishes. Verse 3. Bow the head on the hands and shut the eyes, opening them at the words, "Wake again!"

78 We'll Smash the Saloon When We're Men.
TEMPERANCE SONG.

A. W. S.

ARTHUR W. SPOONER.

Recitation with Chorus after each Verse.

There's a wicked'old monster,
His name is "Saloon?"
He's as bold as a lion
And sly as a coon.
His heart feels no pity,
His purse is his God,
It is time this foul monster
Was under the sod.

So — Chorus.

This horrid old monster
The liquor saloon,
Is as hard to get at
As the "man in the moon?"
He builds a high wall
Of legal protection
And boasts that he'll keep
The whole land in subjection.

But — Chorus.

This brutal old monster
With doors open wide
Invites young and old
Men and women inside:

But when they have entered
(How sad to be told!)
He robs them of character,
Robs them of gold.
Then — Chorus.

He calls to the working man —
"Come in, and rest!"
Then grabs his scant dollars
To feather his nest.
The tears of the mother,
The groans of despair,
Are naught to this monster,
And naught does he care.

So — Chorus.

Then down with this monster!
Let all strike a blow;
Then another, another —
He dies hard you know.
Too long has he triumphed —
Too long fed on blood —
We'll smash the saloon
In the strength of the Lord
Yes — Chorus.

Chorus.

We'll smash the sa-loon when we're men! We'll hit it a - gain and a - gain! We mean what we say and we'll prove it some day, For we'll smash the sa-loon when we're men.

Interesting and Instructive Items

The following pages are intended both for Teacher and Scholar; the former, to use as outlines; the latter may read, or memorize.

THE BIBLE AS A CHART AND GUIDE.

I am a traveler in a strange land,—in a strange land or city that I do not know. I need a guide to show me the places worth seeing, and to show me, also, where I should not go. It is as important to know where not to go as to be told where to go. So, then, I must have a guide, and I want the best I can get. The best guide is one who knows; who knows the "danger" places; who knows where pleasure is found that is safe; who knows the paths that are free from violence, or that lead into forbidden places.

I am like a voyager on a sea. Life is like a great ocean, with treacherous currents leading on to dangerous shoals, or hidden rocks which deal terror to the passengers on the ship when struck in the darkness; doubts and fears like fogs settle about me. I know there is a sure path across the trackless waste of water which never ceases in its motion; day and night, ever, ever and always it rolls and rolls.

I know there is a way and there is some One who knows this way, and so I call for a Pilot to steer my ship away from rock and shoal, from treacherous cape and hidden wreck, through fog, storm, and tempest. I want a Pilot who knows, and a Chart that shows the safe and dangerous places, that I may choose one and avoid the other.

Who shall be my Guide, my Pilot? Jesus, for He has passed through strange lands; He has crossed deep waters; he knows the way He takes; and I'll follow Him.

What shall be my Chart? The Bible, for it is God's word, and it is a safe Chart—the only safe Chart to follow.

TEMPERANCE.

Sixty thousand every year are victims of the habit of intemperance. Be temperate in all things good, but abstain from all things evil. Alcohol or malt liquors are not necessary, and, therefore, they should not be used at all, not even moderately nor temperately.

So that the word Temperance is not as good as the word Abstinence. To abstain is to do without. We do not use food which poisons the body,—we do without it; nor should we use drinks which poison both body and mind; do without them.

For a drink which satisfies better than any other we use water. "In vino veritas, in aqua sanitas" is a Latin saying meaning, Truth is in wine, health is in water; but truth and health both are in water, so the Latin saying is not complete as it stands.

How shall we be abstainers? There is only one way. Here is a tumbler; note well how it is formed and what it says:

T O U C H
A N A

Do without it; don't touch it; don't handle it, and, above all, don't taste it. It is poison.

IT BITES
STINGS
KILLS

SOME THINGS GOD HATES.

Hate means "to have less love for." It also means "to dislike strongly"; it also means "to have a desire to harm or injure another."

There are some things God hates; that is, that He dislikes strongly, and they are:

God hates	A proud look.
	A lying tongue.
	A wicked hand.
	A wicked heart.
	Mischievous feet.
	A false witness.
	Sower of discord.

SOME THINGS GOD LOVES.

Every one know what it is to love, but no one can understand, fully, God's love for us. In John 3: 16 we are told that God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. How great that love must be.

God loves	Poor in Spirit
	Mourners.
	Meek.
	Truth-hungry.
	Merciful.
	Pure in heart.
	Peacemakers.
Persecuted.

Dislike what God dislikes and love what He loves, and happiness is sure to follow.

GOD SAVES.

God saves from danger, from sin, from evil thoughts, from wicked ways.

He saved

From	Peril	Noah from the Flood.
		Israel from Egypt.
		Daniel from the Lions.
		Apostles from Prison.
Sin	The Paralytic.	The Woman in John 8.
		Saul of Tarsus; and
		All who believe in Jesus.

THE ONE CALLED WONDERFUL.

Who is the One called "Wonderful"? Jesus, who also is called "Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, and the Prince of Peace." He has many other names; more than two hundred titles have been given Him in the Bible.

Jesus has	A wonderful Eye to see us.
	A wonderful Ear to hear us.
	A wonderful Heart to love us.
	A wonderful Hand to hold us.
	A wonderful Word to cheer us.
	A wonderful Spirit to guide us.
	A wonderful Home to receive us.

SHORT PRAYERS.

Dear Saviour, may we be Thy true children this day; give us courage to confess Thee before our friends and companions. Amen.

Dear Father, help me to do as Thou wouldst have me do, say what Thou wouldst have me say, go where Thou dost send me, and be what Thou desirest. Amen.

For morning:

Dear Father,
From foes without, within,
From every form of sin
Keep me, I pray;
And grant that I may be
From every sorrow free
Through all this day.
In Jesus' name. Amen.

Dear Jesus, help me to have more of Thyself in my life and less of myself. Amen.

Father, we thank Thee for the night
And for the pleasant morning light;
For rest and food and loving care,
And all that makes the world so fair.
Amen.

Dear Lord, help me this day to bring cheer and sunshine to sad and weary hearts. Amen.

Merciful Father, may the words of my mouth be acceptable this day; may no false or deceitful word pass my lips. Amen.

Heavenly Father, help me to apply the Golden Rule as fairly to my neighbor as I expect him to apply it to me. Amen.

THE GOLDEN RULE.

Whether I am at home, at school,
Or walking out abroad,
I never should forget this rule
Of Jesus Christ the Lord:

To do to others as I would
That they should do to me;
For this will make me kind and good
As children ought to be.

KINDNESS.

Kindness in our manners
We should ever show;
Then as we get older
We will sweeter grow.

A HAPPY SECRET.

We want to make our pathway
As pleasant as can be,
And waken every morning,
Bright, golden beams to see.
We have a happy secret
That brightens all the way,
Just to do a little kindness
To some one every day.

—E. E. Howles.

LITTLE THINGS.

If little falling drops of rain
The lakes and rivers fill;
If little grains of earth and sand
Make mountain, plain and hill:

Little moments, as they pass,
Make hours and days and years:
Then little sins of every kind
Should fill our hearts with fears.

For little sins, if once allowed,
To greater sins must grow;
And if not stopped by grace divine
Will lead to endless woe.

Great God, then fill each infant heart
With love and fear of Thee,
And to us all Thy Spirit give.
That we may holy be.

LITTLE FOXES AND LITTLE HUNTERS

Recite. "Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines."—Song of Solomon, II, 15.

First:

Among my tender vines I spy
A little fox named—By-and-by.

Answer:

Then set upon him, quick, I say,
The swift young hunter—Right-away.

Second:

Around each tender vine I plant,
I find the little fox—I can't.

Answer:

Then, fast as ever hunter ran,
Chase him with bold and brave—I can.

Third:

No-use-in-trying—lags and whines
This fox, among my tender vines.

Answer:

Then drive him low and drive him high,
With this good hunter named—I'll try!

Fourth:

Among the vines in my small lot,
Creeps in the young fox—I-forgot.

Answer:

Then hunt him out and to his den
With—I-will-not-forget-again!

Fifth:

The little fox that, hidden there
Among my vines is—I-don't-care.

Answer:

Then let I'm-sorry—hunter true—
Chase him afar from vines and you.

The Five:

What mischief-making foxes! yet
Among our vines they often get.

In concert:

But, now their hunters' names you know,
Just drive them out, and keep them so.

—Little People's Speaker.

THE SEED.

Within this little seed so small and brown
There is no beauty which our eyes may see,
Yet it contains what even the wisest own
As a great mystery.

What seems a lifeless thing, of little worth,
Reveals to us at last a hidden power;
For by some wondrous alchemy of earth
The seed becomes a flower.

Ah, who would dream that form and color fair

Could from this tiny husk at last be freed?
The mystery of growth and blossom is there within this little seed.

The same wise power that fashioned sky and wave,

And starry worlds, the midnight to illumine,
Designed the little seed and to it gave
Its power to bud and bloom!

—Alice Jean Cleator.

THE MAKING OF HEAVEN.

A teacher told her little class

In Sunday school one day

About the sweet and beautiful place

Called Heaven—far away.

A place "not made with hands," then asked

If she were understood.

"Why, yes," one little tot replied,

"It's just made out of—good."

A GOOD THING TO WRITE.

"What shall I write on my slate?" said Harry to himself. He could not write very well, but he sat down and wrote, "A good boy." Then he took it and showed it to his mother.

"That is a good thing to write," she said. "I hope you will write it on your life as well as on your slate."

"How can I write it on my life?" said Harry.

"By being a good boy every day and hour of your life. Then you will write it on your face, too, for the face of a good boy always tells its own story. It looks bright and happy."—Sunbeam.

GENTLENESS.

A stranger stopped all night at a farmer's house. He noticed that a slender little girl, by her gentle ways, had a great influence in the house. The next morning, when the farmer wanted to drive the stranger to town, the horse refused to go. They jerked it, whipped it, and kicked it. But it would not move. Then the little girl laid her hand on the neck of the horse, spoke a few kind words to it, and stroked it. Instantly the tense muscles relaxed, and the stubbornness vanished. They had no more trouble with the pony that day.

"I WON'T."

A little boy had the bad habit of saying, "I won't" whenever his mother told him to do anything he did not like.

He was very fond of pets. One day he found a wee crow. Frank's father cut the crow's tongue so that he could be taught to talk, and very soon he had learned to say simple words. He would call "Ida" and "Frank" as plainly as the children.

There were some pear trees in the garden back of the house, and one day "Crow," as they called him, was seen picking off the pears. When told to come down, he obeyed; but the next time, instead of coming down when he was called, he turned his head to one side and said: "I won't."

"Crow, come down," was the order.

"I won't," he answered again.

Frank heard him, and thought: "Do I answer my parents in that way?" He sat thinking, and the third time came the answer: "I won't." This time he said it himself, and it meant this: "I won't talk to my mother that way any more."

And he never did. Thus he was helped by a crow.

TO BE TAUGHT TO THE SMALLER ONES.

Two little hands for loving labor given:
Two little feet to walk the road to Heaven:
Two little eyes to read God's Holy Word:
Two little lips to praise the blessed Lord:
One little soul to serve with all its might:
So should we live, always in Jesus' sight.

FIVE B'S.

Believe on the Lord.
Be true to His word.
Be gentle and kind.
Be pure in mind.
Be truthful to all.

Children's Cantatas for Christmas

A greater number of children can be interested and enthused in preparing and rendering a cantata than in any other way.

Enliven the Christmas Season with innocent mirth and song.

THESE ARE THE BEST

SANTA CLAUS JR., by C. AUSTIN MILES and J. LINCOLN HALL. The Libretto tells an interesting story, entertaining and uplifting. Pretty Solos and Choruses abound. The music is sprightly and melodious. Easily rendered. 25 cents the copy

SANTA CLAUS AT MISS PRIM'S, by C. AUSTIN MILES. This is one of our most successful Cantatas. The predominating thought is The Spirit of Love, and while pointing a splendid moral lesson, there is plenty of wit and humor. 25 cents the copy.

SANTA'S SUBSTITUTE, by ELSIE DUNCAN YALE and J. LINCOLN HALL. Libretto, dainty, refined, sparkling, witty. Tells a pretty story in charming style. There are many novel features and characteristic songs and choruses. The music is new and charming. Price 25 cents.

REAL SANTA CLAUS, by J. LINCOLN HALL and C. AUSTIN MILES. This cantata is probably the greatest success in this country. Contains just enough sentiment to make it a little different from other cantatas. Introduces "The tramp," who afterwards proves to be Santa Claus, to the consternation of some and the great delight of others. Prof. Big-wig, who forgets everything but his trouble, and who invests in a cuckoo clock much to his distress. Easily learned; no scenery required. 25 cents the copy.

OLD FASHIONED SANTA CLAUS, by IRVIN H. MACK and J. LINCOLN HALL. Santa is urged to dispose of his old fashioned deer and sleigh and use an automobile. The discussion between the various characters is interesting and instructive, ending in Santa asserting his intent to remain an Old Fashioned Santa Claus. Price, 25 Cents the copy.

SANTA'S SURPRISE, by J. LINCOLN HALL and IRVIN H. MACK. Full of good things—Solos, Choruses, Dialogue and an especially good laughing song. Only eight characters who have speaking or singing parts. Price, 25 cents the copy.

FOR GENERAL USE

FLORA'S BIRTHDAY, by ELSIE DUNCAN YALE and J. LINCOLN HALL. The demand for a concert cantata which may be rendered at any time of year prompted this publication. This Libretto deals with flowers. The children impersonate dainty blooms of all kinds. Plenty of humor supplied by Ragged Robin and Cauliflower. 25 cents the copy.

Inspection Copies sent on receipt of price Money back if cantata is returned
